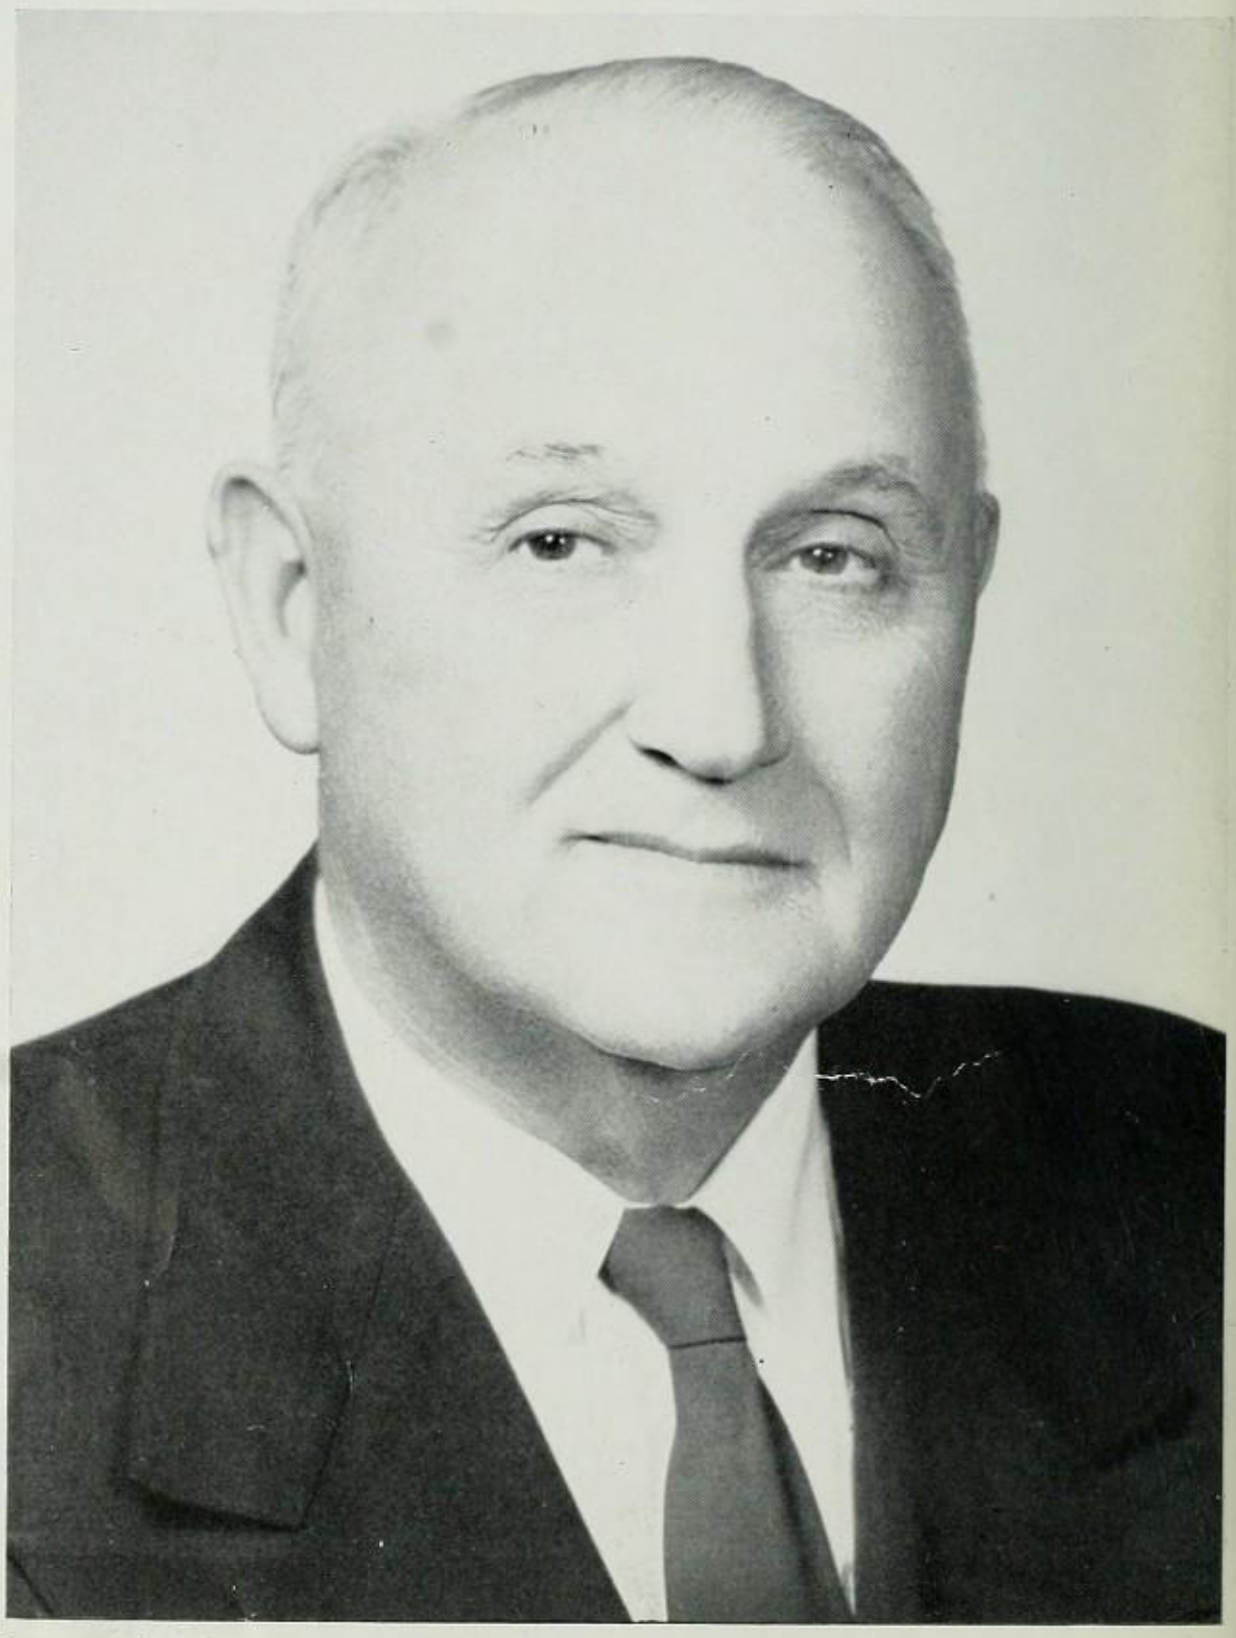
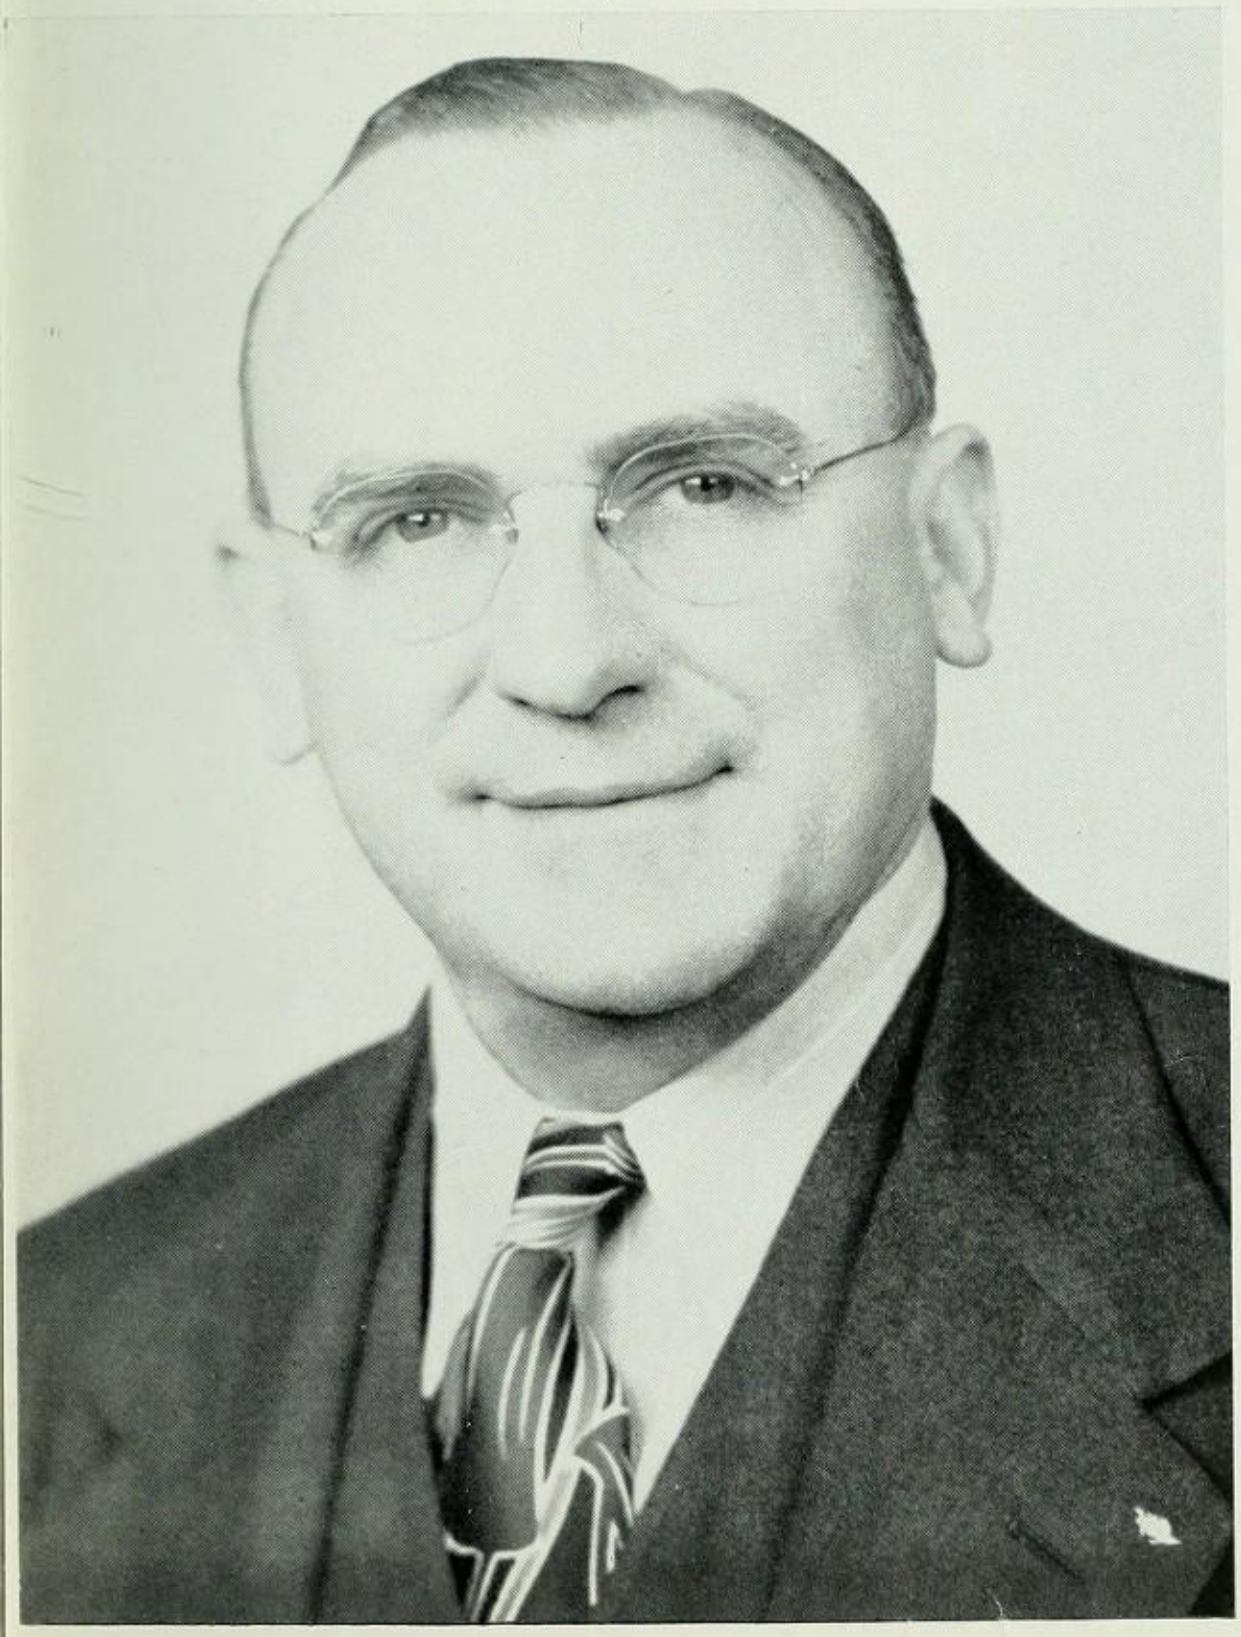
MEMBERS OF BOARD OF EDUCATION: Left to right, seated, Mr. Thomas Bretherton, vice president; Mr. Raymond D. Baldwin, president; Mrs. Jane Kuebbeler. Standing, Mr. Wayne Shawaker, Mr. Edwin D. Dodd.

Through the leadership of Superintendent E. L. Bowsher, we of Libbey were provided with a new field house in the spring of 1955. We were honored to have Mr. Bowsher preside at the dedication of this fine building in October of this year. The special dignity and good humor he lent the occasion were greatly appreciated by us all.



Superintendent E. L. Bowsher

Mr. Rusie chats with the officers of Student Council: Left to right, Bob Fearnside, sergeant-at-arms; Tom A. Smith, president; Marilyn Moyer, secretary-treasurer; and Chuck Chrisman, vice president.



Mr. Rusie's genial "Hi there! How are you today?" is a familiar greeting around Libbey. For no matter how busy he may be, Mr. Rusie never loses his sincere and friendly interest in each of us. We graduating seniors of 1956 carry with us many happy memories of the friendliness and kindness which has endeared him to us all.

Principal Loy W. Rusie

Edelian Dedication

With the retirement of five of our faculty, we Libbey students experience a great loss. In gratitude for their patience and understanding during their years of service to Libbey, we dedicate the 1956 Edelian to:

Nineteen Fifty-Six

Mr. Francis D. Boyle, science teacher; Miss Mary Kelso, school nurse; Miss Mary E. Russell, teacher of Spanish and English; Miss Zoe G. Scott, English teacher; and Mr. Carl Sterling, teacher of industrial arts and mathematics.

Sally Kuebbeler, Sally Taylor, and Norma Raitz enjoy working for Mr. Martin. The library is a pleasant place with Lois and Mrs. Kruse checking the books we borrow.

Kay Robison, Sharon Shipman, and Mary Eberlin gain valuable experience as dean's aides in Miss Kanney's office.

Mr. Robinson, Mr. Campey, and Mr. Martin proudly unfurl our new flag during the dedication ceremony for the Libbey Field House.

The office girls — Ruth, May, Carol, and Laura — are busy as usual with no letup in sight.

Though we are unable to see Mrs. Camp's smile on the telephone, we hear it in her voice.

Ruth and Mr. Rusie share Miss Kanney's delight in the birthday gift she received from her aides.

Miss Foster instructs one of her mathematics classes.

Seniors

Sadie Hawkins' Dance

"Devil's Lake, here we come!" was the cry of the National Honor Society members as they started from school for a day of fun in October. Next came the Scholarship Coke Party at the Mead's and the post-induction party for the new members in March. A picnic in May ended the social program for the year.

To fulfill its purpose of promoting scholarship, the National Honor sponsored a variety of activities. A scholarship program for freshmen and sophomores inspired many underclassmen to strive for higher grades and inclusion in the Honor Group, which is composed of the top three per cent of the freshman class and the top four per cent of the sophomore class. A talent show in December and a Brain-Testing Quiz Show in April were club projects to raise money for scholarships. The Libbey quiz show followed a similar program held at Waite earlier in the year and increased friendship between the two schools.

Planning National Honor activities were Miss Jean Gilbert, adviser; Harold Wagner, president; Shirley Falk, vice president; Carol Mead, secretary; and James Earl, treasurer. Twenty-six juniors and fifty-seven seniors who qualified in the areas of scholarship, leadership, character, and service formed the membership of the group which is pledged ever to hold erect the flaming light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light, to keep burning in our school a high ambition, to approach the highest ideals of life and to recognize its greatest values, and to serve loyally, faithfully, and unselfishly.

"Work, work, work! Hurry, hurry, hurry!" the editors constantly remonstrated. As each deadline flew by in all-too-rapid succession, we found ourselves doing work in March which should have been done in January. First, there was the rush to plan layout and copy, to get pictures scheduled and rescheduled, to sell books; then as section deadlines drew near, there was the mad search for missing pictures and more patrons. Finally, all was well—Edelian Day!

At Libbey everyone reads the Crystal. Always the staff is mindful that the paper has to be top quality to sell. And it is! An excellent feature of the paper this year was its direct contact with students through the "Inquiring Reporter." To keep abreast of matters journalistic, editors and advisers attended publication conferences in Athens, Columbus, and Bowling Green. Mrs. Jo Ann Pierce served as adviser first semester; Miss Kay Quealy, second semester. Our congratulations to advisers and staff on a job well-done.

Student Council

"Beat the Clock!"

The purpose of the Student Council is service to Libbey through the promotion of good citizenship among the students. To serve Libbey, council conducted the Magazine Drive, the Clean-up Campaign, the Thanksgiving Day Queen Campaign and Election, the Good Sportsmanship Contest during both the football and the basketball seasons, and the Eighth-Grade Visitation. In furtherance of good citizenship, Student Council supervised the election of home room representatives to council. These representatives helped inform the student body of the many functions of Student Council and also brought Social affairs sponsored by Student Council were the dances following the Central-Libbey football game and the Magazine Drive, the Area Student Council Dance, and the annual spring roast. Audience and contestants alike enjoyed council's money-making "Beat the Clock" program with Bob Fearnside as master of ceremonies.

Guiding council activities were Miss Grace Henderson and Principal Loy W. Rusie, advisers, and Miss Shirley Haney, assistant adviser.

Periclean Literary Society

The Peries have many memories of the past year pressed away with the flowers from the Tri-Lit Dance. All the girls came out full force to back their candidate for football queen, and they were amply rewarded when Shirley was crowned at the Cowboy Roundup. By sponsoring the Christmas service, they helped inaugurate the new plan of the clubs' taking over holiday programs. "Secundus nulli," "Second to None," traditional Peri motto, again belonged in the Periclean Memory Book.

"Whom are you asking?" was heard around Libbey halls for weeks before the Phil Sadie Hawkins' Dance. The clever decorations and the pretty girls made the fellows glad they were invited. The Phil Pep Rally for the Waite Game, the annual Christmas party, the Mother and Daughter Tea in March, and the annual banquet in May were other affairs heartily supported by the Philaletheans. Topics for the monthly literary meetings were "Seniors Look to the Future" and "Customs of Foreign Countries."

"See you at the Kupid Kapers!" was the watchword before the basketball dance sponsored by the Zets. Zets also were in charge of the Central Mass Meeting and planned an April tea for Zet mothers and a May banquet. Living up to their motto, "Nihil sine labore," "Nothing without work," all Zets participated in the literary meetings on the topic "Famous Men and Women." Other projects of the busy year were the preparation of a Christmas basket and money-making fudge sales.

Forum

Each year the Forum strives to fulfill its purpose of benefiting Libbey by promoting citizenship, leadership, and service. This year Forum sponsored a Thanksgiving program with Reverend Cordner as speaker. It also gave a Christmas basket to a needy family. "Buy your football badge now!" resounded through halls and classrooms as Forum members determinedly pursued their money-making project of the year. On the social calendar were the annual roast and the May banquet.

Gay decorations and wonderful music marked the Q.D. dance following the Macomber basketball game as a memorable occasion for all who attended. Other enjoyable social affairs were the annual roast for members and their dates and the May banquet which honored the senior Q.D.'s.

Senior Y-Teens

"Buy a mum!" urged the Senior Y-Teens prior to the Thanksgiving Day Game. The vigor they displayed in this activity carried through the year. In line with their purpose of building a fellowship of girls devoted to the task of realizing in common life those ideals of personal and social living to which Christians are committed, the Y-Teens sponsored the Lenten services. They also arranged the football banquet at Bethel Lutheran Church and joined with other Y-Teen organizations for a meeting which featured an address by Mr. Sheldon Steinhouser on "Race Relations." Another profitable venture was the sale of Christmas cards. On the Senior Y-Teens' social calendar were the Mother and Daughter Potluck at the Central Y, the March Y-Teens' splash party, and a May breakfast in the cafeteria. Sparking the 1956 program were Miss Ruth Allen, adviser; Carol Mead, president; Darlene Bickelhaupt, secretary-treasurer; and Sue Collins, chaplain.

Junior Y-Teens

"Have another sandwich!" was Miss Haney's invitation at the combination splash party and potluck which the Y-Teens enjoyed at the Y.W.C.A. in March. Inasmuch as uniting junior girls for social and service reasons is the aim of the Junior Y-Teens, the group engaged in a diversity of activities. Preparing nut cups for the Home for the Aged, gathering clothes for the needy in Korea, and collecting for the City of Hope were some of the service projects promoted by the club. Active participation in programs sponsored by the Central Y placed the group in high standing locally. Considering the important topic of brotherhood in conjunction with the other Y-Teen groups developed an understanding of racial relations. Miss Shirley Haney served as adviser to the club. Officers for 1956 were Judy Roush, president; Elaine Ramseur, vice president; Judy Schnell, secretary; Bonnie Thacker, treasurer; Ann Luscombe, reporter; and Karen Walker and Judy Connors, Hi-Y-Teen Representatives.

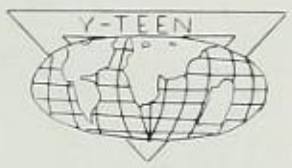
Sophomore Y-Teens



Making Thanksgiving Day favors for the Old Folks' Home and collecting clothes for Europe were worthwhile services performed by the Sophomore Y-Teens this year. Fudge sales raised money for the group. It was not all work for the lively Y-Teens, however; they also found time to enjoy themselves at frequent social events. A fall roast arranged by Carol Bay was followed by the March Y-Teen Splash Party and Potluck and a May tea. Capably advising the group was Mrs. Nancy Davis.

Libbey Hi-Y

Adopting as their purpose creating, maintaining, and extending high standards of Christian character, members of the reorganized Libbey Hi-Y Club sponsored George Campbell, the song leader, and Dr. George Crane, the psychologist, helped with B.I.E. Day, distributed materials for the Community Chest, contributed a Christmas basket to a needy family, and read the Scriptures at our Lenten services. Social events supported by the group were the Snow Ball Dance at the South Side Y.M.C.A. in December, a spring roast, and a Mother and Son Banquet in May.

"Are you affirmative or negative?" was the regular query every Tuesday morning at Debate Club meetings. A thirty-minute television program in February provided the group additional opportunity for elucidating truth and influencing action through debate. Guiding the club, which has been active in Libbey for some thirty years under the aegis of Mr. Baker, were advisers, Mr. R. C. Baker and Mr. Bruce Chambers; president, Richard E. Dennis; vice president, Marilyn Matzinger; secretary, Eleanor Wallbank; treasurer, Bill DeSana; and program chairman, J Alan Aufderheide.

"We serve" is the motto of the Junior Red Cross. In fulfillment of its purpose of helping others locally, nationally, and internationally, the club gave personal service to twenty-seven Toledo institutions, sent gift boxes to needy children throughout the world, and gave money to our city and state and the International Children's Fund. Advising the group was Miss Virginia C. May. Libbey representatives to the Junior Red Cross High School Council and to the Area Council were Ann Grunst, Judy Grunst, Lois Yoh, and Louise Yoh.

Managing club activities were Mrs. Jane Fisher, adviser; Sue Collins, president; Carole Shipman, vice president; Jean Dickerson, secretary-treasurer; Lillian Earl, tennis commissioner; Jess Keller and Barbara Johnson, basketball commissioners; and Vonnie Gurgin and Barbara Shuman, volleyball commissioners.

Libbey Leaders

"What's in the bag?" was the foremost question asked by members of Future Nurses of America when visited by the Public Health Nurse. Guest speakers, visits to St. Charles and Flower Hospitals, and a trip to the Lucas County Home for the Aged emphasized different phases of nursing. In charge of the varied program were advisers, Miss Mary Kelso and Mrs. Beatrice Baird; president, Mary Ellen Watts; vice president, Laurel Schroder; secretary, Margie Matecki; treasurer, Judy Johnson; and reporters, Layne Curtis and Judy Jackson.

F. T. A.

"Buy your bookcovers now!" was the familiar plea of the Future Teachers the past year. Money derived from this project provided scholarships for worthy members of the F.T.A. A picnic dinner at Mrs. Meffley's home and a luncheon at the Y.W.C.A. were pleasant occasions for club members. Even work seemed fun when they visited grade schools to observe teaching methods and attended Bowling Green State University for a day to visit classes and learn about the F.T.A. chapter on campus.

Classical Honor — J. C. L.

The Classical Honor Society of Libbey creates an incentive for high grades in the study of Latin. It is the original chapter of the Junior Classical League. The two organizations observe the same motto, "Scientia Arx Saeculorum," "Knowledge, the Citadel of the Ages," and combine for activities. To promote interest in classical civilization, members donned Roman attire for the Ohio Classical Conference at the Toledo Museum of Art and for their Induction Party and Latin Week. Mrs. Pauline Burton advised the groups.

To heighten interest in world affairs, members of the Libbey United Nations Club participated in the Council of Europe which convened at the University of Toledo in December. Highlighting the occasion for the Libbey delegation was the post-session party at Pat Poole's home.

Perhaps the busiest people about Libbey are Mr. Charles Martin's activities workers. Among the time-consuming jobs which they successfully completed in 1956 were those of handling activities tickets, selling the Crystal, and taking orders for and distributing Edelians.

The senior play, "Bishop's Mantle," and the junior play, "Time out for Ginger," were the exciting outputs of the Dramatics Club in 1956. In February, the group benefited by attending the Bowling Green State University Players' performance of "School for Scandal."

In accordance with their motto, "Geared to the Times; Anchored to the Rock," members of the Libbey Youth for Christ Club held a prayer meeting each morning before school. On the second and fourth Saturday nights of each month, members attended Y.F.C. rallies at Macomber High School.

F. B. L. A.

Following to the letter their motto, "Learn to Serve, and Serve to Learn," the Future Business leaders of America were extremely active in 1956. For their program of work, they filled a Christmas basket, visited the Old Folks Home, took a field trip to the Toledo Trust, and attended the State Convention in Genoa, Ohio, in October, and the National Convention in Washington, D.C., in June. Gala social occasions were a Halloween Party in October, a Christmas party, a Mothers' Tea in February, an April banquet,

Biology Club

Looking over the Biology Club scrapbook are Jess Keller and Jane Schlicher.

Truly bios means life as exemplified by the Biology Club this year. The club agenda burgeoned with activities. Members heralded the opening of school with a roast at Side-Cut Park in September. A Christmas party and a club-sponsored basketball dance in January were other major social events. Included in the program of work and study were quiz shows, a picture-collecting contest, and reports on speakers presented by the Toledo Zoological Society in which the Libbey group maintains a membership.

Band

Directing the Libbey Band this year were its conductor, Mr. James Grabill; president, Lawson Burrow; vice president and student conductor, Chuck Hopkins; secretary, Bill Selvey; assistant secretary and treasurer, Barbara Bruggeman; and librarian, Marilyn Leibius. In addition to presenting rousing winter and spring concerts, the group sold tags to raise money for band equipment, went to Ann Arbor for a close-up of the University of Michigan Marching Band, and planned three outings—a feather party, a Christmas potluck, and a spring roast.

Choir

"Practice makes perfect." How well choir members know the truth of that maxim! Preparations for the Lenten services began early in the year with sections coming early for practice before school. A dress rehearsal in the Art Museum with the participants from other schools preceded the Choral Festival at the Peristyle April 15. The choir also spent many hours practicing prior to the October and May broadcasts over W.T.D.S., the Lenten Service at Trinity Episcopal Church, the exchange program with Whitmer High School in May, and the May evening concert at Libbey. Practice did make perfect; however, it was by no means "all work and no play" for the choir. Members all agreed that singing is fun as well as work. Conducting the group were Mr. Harold McClure, director; Barbara Thomas, president; Tim Cross, vice president; Mary Eberlin, secretary-treasurer; and Susie Klein and Frank Winterhalter, sergeants-at-arms.

Orchestra

There was an addition to the Music Department this year with the formation of the Libbey Orchestra. Responsible for organizing the group was its conductor, James R. Grabill. Striving to learn how to play music and to adjust socially, orchestra members performed at the Libbey Christmas program, gave several Christmas concerts at elementary schools, and participated in the Spring Music Concert. First violin positions were held by Roger Anderson, Maxine Dashner, Vonnie Gurgin, Mike McClure, and Jon Willinger; second, by Roger Burnett and Barbara Zibbell; and third, by Diane Bigelow, Melanie Graham, and Beverly Miller. Ann Slater and Sandra Leitner were cellists. Lawson Burrow played the piano, and Bob Huntly, the tuba. The drums were played by Loren Stewart. Judy Durliat held the first chair in the flute section, and Barb Bruggeman, the second. First trumpeter was Chuck Hopkins, and second, Ron Kilell. Trombonist was Denny Huff; clarinetist, Janell Maeder.

Jim Rogers, Tom Szymanski, and Bob Fearnside must have been beautiful babies.

Our coaches strive to increase the potential of Libbey athletes both physically and mentally. The task of arranging interesting and challenging game schedules for our athletics teams was capably handled by Mr. Charles Robinson. He also managed efficiently the financial business of the athletic department and co-ordinated the many functions that took place in our field house. Much of our football team's success can be attributed to the excellent guidance of Coach Don Harris, a graduate of Libbey, who has completed his first year as head football coach. Helping Coach Harris with the varsity team was Assistant Coach Bob Momsen, also a Libbey graduate. Libbey team physician, Dr. H. R. Carbin, has faithfully and successfully completed another year of treating any Libbey athlete who needed attention. Our basketball program was capably headed by Varsity Coach Al Jeffery who has been varsity basketball coach for the last eleven years. In charge of the lightweight basketball team was Coach Leo Campey. The city champion freshman basketball team was coached by Mr. Albin Vaznelis, who also was an assistant football coach, along with Mr. Dick Strahm, for the freshman team. Spring sports play an increasingly important part in the athletic program. Bill Wirick's track team had a most successful season, winning the city league championship. The cross-country and lightweight football team was also coached by Mr. Wirick. Assistant football coach George Miley lead the lightweight team to many victories. He also coached the freshman track team. Coaching the bowling team was Mr. Leo Kubacki; the tennis team, Mr. Don Fisher; and the golf team, Mr. John Needles. Climaxing a long and successful career as baseball coach, Mr. Jeffery will now devote full time to the varsity basketball team. Coach Albin Vaznelis succeeded Coach Jeffery for the 1956 baseball season. Mr. Orville Henrion served as ticket manager for the Athletic Department.

Reaching for the Stars?

☆ OF COURSE YOU ARE, why not? It means you are ambitious . . . looking forward to the years ahead to whatever they will bring . . . to the big challenge of making your own way . . . to reach the top in whatever field you select.

IT'S GOOD — this ambition — because, properly channeled, it leads to accomplishment, and security, and all the good things in life you have a right to expect.

YOUR FIRST STEP is to select a job in which your talents can be explored and used most fully.

YOUR INTERESTS may lie in, say, the field of electronics . . . or hydraulics, chemistry, mechanical engineering . . . or they may lean toward office work, or administration . . . or many of numerous interesting and rewarding occupations. Whatever your dreams, whatever your ambitions, we believe you can fulfill them at Auto-Lite, because Auto-Lite offers many opportunities in these and many other fields. Auto-Lite is the world's largest independent manufacturer of automotive electrical equipment, but that tells only part of the story. In short, we believe we are big enough, diversified enough to meet any demands your ambition calls for.

WHEN YOU COME TO TALK to us, bring your ambition . . . and your dreams. We're interested in young people who are reaching for the stars.
